Legal and Judicial Events in the Career of Peter J. Somers, Candidate for Justice of the Peace

Judge Somers was admitted to practice his profession in the Supreme Court of the State of Wisconsin in January, 1884.

In 1894 he was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the United States.

In 1905 he was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada.

In 1908 he was selected Judge of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, and presided as such in the Counties of Esmeralda and Mineral until 1915.

During his administration he tried all the jury cases at Goldfield, and all the criminal cases brought before the court.

In Mineral County he likewise presided continuously as District Judge, during the time mentioned.

During his incumbency of the office of District Judge, he also tried many cases in different counties of the state in the various judicial districts, such as Clark, Lincoln, Nye, Washoe and Elko Counties.

In 1914 a series of damage suits were instituted at Goldfield in his court, aggregating over $200,000. These cases, for the convenience of witnesses and parties, were transferred to Reno for trial, and Judge Somers presided at these trials. Two of the most important were tried and determined, and his decision in these two cases was adopted and used by the attorneys on both sides as the basis of settlement in all the others.

Judge Somers' services were continuous from the time he assumed his duties until 1915, and the Supreme Court of the state was very considerate in passing on the opinions and decisions rendered by Judge Somers.

Judge Somers states that were his experience on the bench and at the bar materially less, he would not offend the good people of Tonopah by obtruding his candidacy for Justice at this time and, under the circumstances, in the coming election.

GOVERNOR COX ACCEPTS

ties of public service which he has brought me in the past, and for the willingness which it has shown to extend those opportunities to a still greater field, but I am glad to say that it has always recognized that my official duties were to the people as a whole, and has in no case attempted to interfere under pretext of party responsibility, with my right of personal judgment under oath, in the performance of those duties.

Campaign of Dollars.
"There will be no attempt in this campaign to compete by dollars with our opposition. So many people have been in the money-gathering business for the reactionary cause that the millions already in hand are more or less a matter of general information. All that we ask is that both parties act in the utmost good faith with the electorate and tell the plain truth as to the amounts received, the contributors, and the items of disbursements. The public judgment in elections should be rendered after the fullest hearing possible. Each side has the right to properly present its case.

"If I were asked to name to these trying days the first month of overshadowing every other consideration, the response would be confidence in government. I would be asking less than a calamity if the most administrations were selected under corrupt auspices. There is a great country, our people have passed through a trying experience. The European war before it engulfed us aroused every racial thought in a nation of composite citizenship. The conflict in which we participated carried anxieties into every community and thousands upon thousands of homes were touched by tragedy. The incense of peace has drifted to the sea, and we are disqui-etted by the failure of the republicans congresses to repeat, among other things, the failure of the republicans has added to our troubles. The natural impulse is to force the past to develop new interests, to create a reformed and refreshing atmosphere in life. We want to see a way and be free from troubling thoughts of its possibility in the future. We want the show and the show of a new morning. We want happiness in the land, the feeling that the square deal among men and between men and government is to be enforced with by a purchased preference.
The leaders opposed to democracy promise to put the country back to normal. This can only mean the so-called normal of business reactionary administrations, the abandonment of the future, a return to the old farm produce and a small wage for a long day of labor. My vision does not turn backward to the normal desired by the reactionary, but to a future in which of shall have a higher status, a more honest government than that of the past.
Our view is toward the sunrise of tomorrow with its progress and its eternal promise of better times. The opposition stands in the skyline of the setting sun looking backward to the old days of reaction.

"I accept the nomination of representative to the Nevada State legislature of all peoples, and hopeful that by trust in him the way will be shown for helpful service."
